

SPIRITUAL GIFTS INVENTORY

The following spiritual gifts inventory provides opportunity for you to respond to 125 statements. Your response to these statements will help determine areas of personal strength and ministry and provide a tool to help discover your spiritual gifts. Respond on the basis of your INTEREST AND/OR EXPERIENCE. Honest responses are essential. Don't respond on the basis of how you think others want you to respond.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Pray before you begin. Ask the Lord to help you begin to discover your spiritual gifts through this experience. Ask Him for His wisdom.
2. Read each statement and give it a moment of serious thought.
3. For each statement say to yourself: "In my life I have satisfactorily experienced..."
4. Please place an X in the appropriate box labeled "Very much", "Much", "Some", "Little", "Not at all".
5. Complete the entire survey before referring to the computation chart on page 12.

Inventory Summary

Looking at the “total” column on the computation chart on page 11, enter in the “Primary” section below the three gifts that you received the highest score. Then enter in the “Secondary” section the next three highest scoring gifts. This will give you a tentative evaluation of what your spiritual gifts may be.

Primary

- 1.-----
- 2.-----
- 3.-----

Secondary

- 1.-----
- 2.-----
- 3.-----

Remember this is just a starting place in helping you discover the spiritual gifts God has given you. Do not make the mistake of considering the results final and irrefutable. It may very well be that a gift you have does not show up strongly here. However, you can use this inventory as a helpful source of insight, not letting the results control or bind you and your ministry.

Five Steps To Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts

1. Explore the Possibilities: Read through the key chapters in the Holy Scripture dealing with spiritual gifts (1 Corinthians 12, Romans 12, Ephesians 4). Learn what the gifts are, what characterizes them, and how they function in the Body of Christ, so that you can have something concrete to look for as you move ahead.
2. Experiment with as Many Gifts as Possible: The spiritual gifts analysis which you have just completed has helped you experiment with different gifts. Your feelings, reactions, and general outlook on the gifts were measured as you worked through the statements on pages 2-7. Now you need to experiment further with the gifts you pinpointed in the analysis, i.e., the “Primary” and “Secondary” gifts listed on the top of this page. Unless you try the gifts this analysis has revealed, you will have a hard time knowing whether you really have them or not. Get involved in a ministry activity that will let you try out these gifts.
3. Examine Your Feelings: Since God has put the Body together, you will feel fulfilled when functioning in the proper area. Thus, if you enjoy your attempts to use a particular gift, that is a good sign that you possess it. If, however, you dislike the service activities associated with a certain gift, that is a fairly good sign that you do not have it.
4. Evaluate Your Effectiveness: Since spiritual gifts are designed to benefit others, you should see positive results as you use your gift(s). If you see no results when you experiment with a particular gift, you probably do not have that gift. But it could be that you did not give it a fair try, or that it will simply take time for you to learn to use the gift effectively. As you evaluate, pray for the courage to be honest with yourself and with the Lord.
5. Expect Confirmation from the Body: You cannot discover, develop, and use a gift all on your own. Gifts are given to build up other members of the Body. If you have a gift, other Christians will recognize it and confirm it. If you feel that you have a particular gift but no one else agrees with you, then you should take a closer look at yourself and reevaluate.
